Peckham Inc. Celebrates New Building- Granholm, Bernero and Director of US Treasury CDFI to speak

WHAT: Peckham, Inc. celebrates the completion of its new building with an opening ceremony featuring national, state and local dignitaries. The building showcases how universal design and sustainable building practices can create a cost-effective, efficient, accessible space. Confirmed speakers include:

- Michigan Governor, Jennifer Granholm
- Donna Gambrell, Director, US Treasury Community Development Financial Institutions Fund
- Lansing Mayor, Virg Bernero
- Robert Chamberlin, President & CEO, NISH

Peckham's building will be the first LEED silver certified manufacturing facility in Lansing, and one of only four other certified manufacturing plants in Michigan and among less than a dozen nationwide.

The new building consolidates all of Peckham's Lansing-based manufacturing into 110,000 square feet of flexible manufacturing space and nearly 70,000 square feet of office, cafeteria and learning space.

WHEN: Wednesday April 22, from 9 a.m. to noon, opening ceremony begins at 9:30 a.m.
